 12. The Report by the Children Officer dated 11/9/2023 was also filed in court on 2/10/2023 certifying the applicants as meeting the legal parameters to adopt the minor herein.
 13. The applicants in my view, as supported by evidence on record, have met all the legal requirements of adoption. No doubt, the Applicants are clear with intentions to protect, support, provide inheritance for and maintain the child as their own.
 14. The commendation report by the Children's Officer and the Child Welfare Society of Kenya, a Registered Adoption Society too gives the Applicants the go ahead to adopt the minor. They describe the Applicants as committed to caring and maintaining the child and hold the view that the adoption herein sought will be in the child's best interest.
 15. I am satisfied that they have bonded well. The minor is in a good home. I am satisfied that the child will be in a good home.

16. The legal guardian, Mary Wangai Kiama confirmed that she signed the consent to act as a legal guardian and understood her role well.
17. KKPI confirmed that they issued certificates confirming that the child in this matter is free for adoption. They also assessed the Applicants, found them suitable and duly counselled on adoption.
18. Having listened to the evidence and perused the requirements for adoption, I find that the Originating Summons dated 23/5/2022, is merited and as such I allow the same.
