REPUBLIC OF KENYA
IN THE HIGH COURT AT KISUMU
CRIMINAL REVISION E093 OF 2024
RE ABURILI, J
AUGUST 14, 2024

BETWEEN

STEPHEN OMONDI ONYANGO APPLICANT

AND

REPUBLIC RESPONDENT

(From the original conviction and sentence in Winam SPM S.O. Case No. 24 of 2018)

RULING

1. The applicant is a convict in a defilement case at Winam Law Courts. He was sentenced to serve life imprisonment under section 8(2) of the Sexual Offences Act. He appealed to this Court vide HCRA 766 of 2019 which appeal was dismissed. He now applies for revision of sentence to a term sentence and that the period spent in custody pending trial be considered as stipulated in section 333(2) of the Criminal Procedure Code.
2. I have perused the application for revision of sentence, which is mandatory under the law, being section 8(2) of the Sexual offences Act.
3. Prior to the directions of the Supreme Court in Francis Karioko Muruatetu and Another v Republic [2017] eKLR on 6th July 2021 that emphasized that the said case was only applicable to murder cases, courts re-sentenced petitioner/convicts for different offences, including sexual offences.
4. In the cases of defilement, the High Court and subordinate courts were bound by the Court of Appeal decision in the case of Dismas Wafula Kilwake v Republic [2018] eKLR where it held that Section 8 of the Sexual Offences Act must be interpreted so as not to take away the discretion of the court in sentencing offences.

5. With the directions of the Supreme Court which clarified that the case of Francis Karioko Muruatetu and Another v Republic (Supra) was applicable to re-sentencing in murder cases only, courts have since stopped re-sentencing applicants in sexual offences.
6. However, on 3rd December 2021 while the Supreme Court directions of 6th July 2021 were still in place, in the case of GK v Republic (Criminal Appeal 134 of 2016) [2021] KECA 232 (KLR), the Court of Appeal reiterated that the law was no longer rigid with regard to minimum mandatory sentences and would take into account the peculiar circumstances of each case.
7. On 15th May 2022 which was also after the directions of the Supreme Court, in the case of Maingi & 5 others v Director of Public Prosecutions & another (Petition E017 of 2021) [2022] KEHC 13118 (KLR), Odunga J (as he then was) held that to the extent that the Sexual Offences Act prescribed minimum mandatory sentences with no discretion to the trial court to determine the appropriate sentence to impose, such sentences fell afoul of Article 28 of the Constitution of Kenya, 2010. He, however, clarified that it was not unconstitutional to mete out the mandatory sentence if the circumstances of the case warranted such a sentence.
8. In the case of Joshua Gichuki Mwangi v Republic [2022] eKLR, the Court of Appeal reiterated the reasoning in the case of Dismas Wafula Kilwake v Republic (Supra) and held that it was impermissible for the legislature to take away the discretion of courts and to compel them to mete out sentences that were disproportionate to what would otherwise be an appropriate sentence.
9. However, the aforementioned decision was overturned by the Supreme Court on the 12th July 2024, just a month ago, in Petition No. E018 of 2023 Republic v Joshua Gichuki Mwangi wherein the court faulted the Court of Appeal's decision to reduce the sentence meted out on the appellant from 20 years to 15 years on the grounds of unconstitutionality or otherwise of minimum sentences under the Sexual Offences Act and discretion to mete out sentences under the said Act. The Supreme Court noted that:

“The reasoning behind the court's decision is called into question by this omission as sentencing is a matter of fact unless an Appellate Court is dealing with a blatantly illegal sentence which was not the case in the present matter.”
10. The Supreme Court in setting aside the Court of Appeal decision in Joshua Gichuki Mwangi supra went on to find and hold that the sentence imposed by the trial court against the Respondent and affirmed by the first appellate court was lawful and remains lawful as long as Section 8 of the Sexual Offences Act remains valid.
11. In the circumstances, the applicant has not demonstrated before this court that the sentence rendered by the trial court was illegal or that it was arrived at by a wrong exercise of jurisdiction and in the circumstances, I find no reason to interfere with the same.
12. The upshot of the above is that this application for revision of sentence lacks merit and I thus proceed to dismiss it in its entirety.
13. This file is closed.
14. I so order.

DATED, SIGNED AND DELIVERED AT KISUMU THIS 14TH DAY OF AUGUST, 2024

R.E. ABURILI
