

REPUBLIC OF KENYA

IN THE HIGH COURT OF KENYA AT VOI

CRIMINAL REVISION NO 8 OF 2018

DAUDI JELLE SAMOO.....APPLICANT

VERSUS

REPUBLIC.....RESPONDENT

RULING

1. I have looked at the Applicants application for Revision that was filed on 26th January 2018 and noted his submissions that he can only raise Ksh 10,000/= because his employer disappeared after his animals were released. He has no other means of paying the fine. While I sympathise with him, an offence under the Law was committed and the same must be punished as the scales of law must cut both ways.

2. In view of the fact that he had one hundred and twenty (120) animals in the Tsavo East National Park without authorisation, I hereby set aside and/or vacate the order of Hon E G Nderitu (SPM) that he pays a fine of Ksh 70,000/= and/or in default to serve six (6) months imprisonment and in its place, fine him Ksh 30,000/- and in default to serve three (3) months imprisonment.

3. Indeed, a fine ought not to be what a person can afford but rather, it must be commensurate with what is provided under the law.

4. Orders accordingly.

DATED and DELIVERED at VOI this 31st day of January 2018

J. KAMAU
