DIRECTIONS

When this matter was placed before me on 13th November, 2017 at the instance of counsel on record, I made orders for filing of submissions to address the application before me. Subsequently, the ruling was set for today 8th March, 2018.

On going back to the pleadings to prepare the ruling, I noted that this matter falls within the jurisdiction of Environment and Land Court. In addition, by a Practice Direction made in the year 2012, the then Chief Justice directed that matters relating to Business Premises Tribunal and rental thereof among others, be determined by the said court.

In view of the foregoing, I defer this matter to the Environment and Land Court Division for hearing and determination. Parties herein shall appear before the Duty Judge of that court on 14th March, 2018 for appropriate directions.

Dated, signed and delivered at Nairobi this 8th Day of March, 2018.
