

REPUBLIC OF KENYA

IN THE HIGH COURT OF KENYA AT GARISSA

CRIMINAL CASE NO. 12 OF 2014

REPUBLIC.....PROSECUTOR

V E R S U S

ABDIRAHAMAN MOHAMED HAJIR.....ACCUSED

SENTENCE

I have considered the mitigating as well as the aggravating factors. The accused is a first offender. His counsel Mr. Nyaga has passionately said that he is a family man and comes from Ethiopia.

The maximum sentence for murder is death. The way the offence was committed was like a well-planned and targeted execution of the deceased. The accused also attempted to shoot those who chased him, and possibly threw a grenade at them. The attackers of the defenseless deceased were three. In my view, this is a case calling for the death penalty.

I sentence the accused to suffer death as provided by law for the offence of murder. Right of appeal explained.

Dated and delivered at Garissa this 26th November, 2018.
