

REPUBLIC OF KENYA
IN THE HIGH COURT OF KENYA AT MILIMANI
ADOPTION CAUSE NO. 136 OF 2013 (OS)
AND
IN THE MATTER OF THE CHILDREN'S ACT
(NO. 8 OF 2001)
AND
IN THE MATTER OF BABY T alias D W
JUDGEMENT

1. The applicants, J K G and R M K, are Kenyan citizens. They are a married couple who are currently resident in Kenya. They seek to adopt Baby T alias D W. Their originating summons is dated 20th May 2013.
2. The child in question was found abandoned on 18th June 2011 at [particulars withheld] Street within Nairobi. The matter of the abandonment was reported at the Kamukunji Police Station, who referred the child to the Missionaries of Charity Home where she was admitted and later committed by the Children's Court. The parents or relatives of the child have not been traced to date. The child was placed with the applicants on 14th April 2012. It is estimated that she was born on the 22nd day of February 2004.
3. The child was freed for adoption by the KKPI Adoption Society, by its certificate of 14th April 2012.
4. To facilitate this adoption, the applicants have been assessed by the KKPI Adoption Society, the Director of Children Services and the guardian ad litem, H N N. The three have compiled and filed their reports in court. That of the KKPI Adoption Society is dated 19th June 2103, while that of the Director of Children Services is dated 2nd October 2013. That of the guardian ad litem is dated 19th December 2013.
5. All these reports are favourable and recommend the proposed adoption. The applicants have demonstrated that they have the financial and emotional capability and capacity to take care of the child. The child herself appears to have bonded well with them and she considers them to be her parents.
6. In the opinion of this court it would be in the best interests of the child that she is adopted by the applicants. The applicants will be able to provide a home and a family for the child to grow up in and to thereafter be a useful member of the family. Consequently, the applicants shall assume all parental rights and duties of the biological parents in respect of the adopted child; they shall treat the adopted child as if she was born to them. The applicants have been made aware that once the adoption order is made it shall be final and binding during the lifetime of the child and that the child shall have the right to inherit their property. The applicant cannot give up the child owing to any subsequent unforeseen behaviour or other changes in the child.

7. I am satisfied that all the legal requirements for a local adoption have been met, and I therefore make the following orders:-
- a. That the applicants, J K G and R M K, are hereby allowed to adopt the child known as Baby T alias D W, who shall hereafter be known D W;
 - b. That the said child shall be presumed Kenyan by birth as she was found abandoned in Nairobi within Kenya.
 - c. That S T K is hereby appointed legal guardian of the child should misfortune befall the applicants;
 - d. That the Registrar-General is directed to enter this adoption order in the adoption register; and
 - e. That the guardian ad litem is hereby discharged.

DATED, SIGNED and DELIVERED at NAIROBI this 25th DAY OF April, 2014.
