

REPUBLIC OF KENYA

HIGH COURT OF KENYA AT MILIMANI

ADOPTION CAUSE NO. 190 OF 2013 (OS)

AND

IN THE MATTER OF THE CHILDREN'S ACT

(NO. 8 OF 2001)

AND

IN THE MATTER OF BABY F alias P K

JUDGMENT

1. The applicants, M A M and B K A, are Kenyan citizens. They are a married couple. By their Originating Summons dated 28th August 2013 they seek to adopt a female child called Baby F alias P K.
2. The subject child, Baby F alias P K, was found abandoned at the Machakos Bus Station in Nairobi on 25th April 2009. A report of the abandonment was made at the Kamukunji Police Station the same day. Efforts to trace the mother of the child have not been successful. The child was handed over to the Missionaries of Charity Home, Huruma, where she was committed later by the Nairobi Children's Court. She was placed with the applicants on 18th December 2010 for the bonding period.
3. This adoption is being arranged by the Little Angels Network adoption agency. The said adoption agency declared the child free for adoption through their certificate dated 15th December 2010.
4. To facilitate this adoption, the applicants have been assessed by the Little Angels Network, the guardian ad litem, B A O and the Director of Children Services. All three have compiled and filed their reports in court. The report by the Director of Children Services is dated 19th December 2013, while that by the Little Angels Network is dated 27th October 2010. The report of the guardian ad litem is dated 9th May 2014.
5. All these reports are favourable and recommend the proposed adoption. The applicants have demonstrated that they have the financial and emotional capability and capacity to take care of the child. The child appears to have bonded well with them and she considers them to be her parents. I note that the applicants have two biological children of their own.
6. In the opinion of this court it would be in the best interests of the child that he is adopted by the applicants. The applicants will be able to provide a home and a family for the child to grow up in and thereafter be a useful member of the family. Consequently, the applicants shall assume all parental rights and duties of the biological parents in respect of the adopted child; they shall treat the adopted child as if she was born to them. The applicants have been made aware that once the adoption order is made it shall be final and binding during the lifetime of the child and that the child shall have the right to inherit their property. The applicants cannot give up the child owing to any subsequent unforeseen behaviour or other changes in the child.

7. I find that the application before me has merit and I hereby permit the applicants, M A M and B K A, to adopt Baby F alias P K to be known hereafter as P K. I hereby appoint P M and A K M the child's legal guardians should misfortune befall the applicants during the child's minority. The child shall be presumed Kenyan by birth as she was found abandoned in Nairobi within the Republic of Kenya. I direct the Registrar-General to enter this adoption order in the adoption register. The guardian ad litem is hereby discharged.

DATED, SIGNED and DELIVERED at NAIROBI this 14th DAY OF August, 2014.
