

REPUBLIC OF KENYA

IN THE HIGH COURT OF KENYA AT MILIMANI

ADOPTION CAUSE NO. 246 OF 2013 (OS)

AND

IN THE MATTER OF THE CHILDREN'S ACT

(NO. 8 OF 2001)

AND

IN THE MATTER OF BABY J W alias K N

JUDGEMENT

1. J W M is a single applicant, who is Kenyan citizen. She seeks to adopt a Kenyan female child, known for the purposes of these proceedings as Baby J W alias K N. Her Originating Summons is dated 15th October 2013.
2. Baby J W alias K N was born on 17th January 2008 at the Nanyuki District Hospital. He was abandoned at the hospital nursery. A report of the abandonment was made at the Nanyuki Police Station on 17th January 2008. The child was subsequently admitted at the New Life Home Trust for care and protection, to which institution she was later formally committed by the Nanyuki Children's Court. He was placed with the applicant for the pre-adoption bonding period on 21st September 2012.
3. This background is set out in the statement in support of the application as well as the affidavit of the applicant verifying the statement, and in the documents prepared and filed in court by the KKPI adoption society on 22nd November 2013.
4. The child was freed for adoption by KKPI adoption society by their declaration certificate dated 20th November 2013.
5. To facilitate this adoption, the applicant has been assessed by the KKPI adoption society, the Director of Children Services and the guardian ad litem, N K. These three have compiled and filed their reports in court. The report by the KKPI adoption society is undated, while that by the Director of Children services is dated 25th June 2014. The guardian ad litem's report is dated 7th April 2014.
6. All these reports are favourable and recommend the proposed adoption. The applicant has filed documents that demonstrate that she has the financial and emotional capability and capacity to take care of the child. The child appears to have bonded well with the applicant and he considers her to be his parent.

7. In the opinion of this court it would be in the best interests of the child that he is adopted by the applicant. The applicant will be able to provide a home and a family for the child to grow up in and thereafter be a useful member of the family. Consequently, the applicant shall assume all parental rights and duties of the biological parents in respect of the adopted child; she shall treat the adopted child as if he was born to her. The applicant has been made aware that once the adoption order is made it shall be final and binding during the lifetime of the child and that the child shall have the right to inherit her property. The applicant cannot give up the child owing to any subsequent unforeseen behaviour or other changes in the child.
8. I am satisfied that all the legal requirements for a local adoption have been met, and I therefore make the following orders:-
- a. That the court the application J W M to adopt the child Baby J W alias K N;
  - b. That the consent of the biological parents of the child is hereby dispensed with;
  - c. The said child shall hereafter be known as JWM;
  - d. That J W M is hereby appointed the legal guardians of the child in the event of the untoward happening to the applicant;
  - e. That the Registrar-General is directed to enter this adoption order in the adoption register;
  - f. That the guardian ad litem is hereby accordingly discharged; and
  - g. That the child is hereby declared to be Kenyan by birth on account of having been born in Kenya to a known Kenyan mother.

DATED, SIGNED and DELIVERED at NAIROBI this 26th DAY OF September 2014.
