

REPUBLIC OF KENYA
IN THE HIGH COURT OF KENYA AT MILIMANI
ADOPTION CAUSE NO. 150 OF 2013 (OS)
AND
IN THE MATTER OF THE CHILDREN'S ACT
(NO. 8 OF 2001)
AND
IN THE MATTER OF B T alias B J M
JUDGEMENT

1. R K is a single applicant, who is Kenyan citizen. She seeks to adopt a Kenyan female child, known for the purposes of these proceedings as B T alias B J M. Her Originating Summons is dated 24th June 2013.
2. Becky Thamani alias B J M was abandoned by her mother whose name is unknown along Molo Road in Elburgon. She was admitted at the Elburgon Nyayo Hospital shortly after she was found. A report of the abandonment was made the same day at the Elburgon Police Station. Efforts to trace the birth mother of the child were not fruitful. The child was subsequently admitted at the New Life Home Trust Children's Home at Nakuru for care and protection, to which institution she was later formally committed by the Molo Children's Court. She was placed with the applicant for the pre-adoption bonding period on 20th September 2012. It is estimated that she was born on 25th October 2010.
3. This background is set out in the statement in support of the application as well as the affidavit of the applicant verifying the statement, and in the documents prepared and filed in court by the KKPI adoption society on 26th September 2013.
4. The child was freed for adoption by the KKPI adoption society by their declaration certificate dated 19th March 2013.
5. To facilitate this adoption, the applicant has been assessed by the KKPI adoption society, the Director of Children Services and the guardian ad litem, A K. These three have compiled and filed their reports in court. The report by the KKPI adoption society is dated April 2012, while that by the Director of Children services is dated 26th November 2013. The guardian ad litem's report is dated 17th December 2013.
6. All these reports are favourable and recommend the proposed adoption. The applicant has filed documents that demonstrate that she has the financial and emotional capability and capacity to take care of the child. The child appears to have bonded well with the applicant and she considers her to be her parent.

7. In the opinion of this court it would be in the best interests of the child that she is adopted by the applicant. The applicant will be able to provide a home and a family for the child to grow up in and thereafter be a useful member of the family. Consequently, the applicant shall assume all parental rights and duties of the biological parents in respect of the adopted child; she shall treat the adopted child as if she was born to her. The applicant has been made aware that once the adoption order is made it shall be final and binding during the lifetime of the child and that the child shall have the right to inherit her property. The applicant cannot give up the child owing to any subsequent unforeseen behaviour or other changes in the child.

8. I am satisfied that all the legal requirements for a local adoption have been met, and I therefore make the following orders:-

- a. That the court the application by Ro K to adopt the child Baby B T alias B J M;
- b. That the consent of the biological parents of the child is hereby dispensed with;
- c. The said child shall hereafter be known as B J M;
- d. That J M K is hereby appointed the legal guardian of the child in the event of the untoward happening to the applicant;
- e. That the Registrar-General is directed to enter this adoption order in the adoption register;
- f. That the guardian ad litem is hereby accordingly discharged; and
- g. That the child is hereby presumed to be Kenyan by birth on account of having been born in Kenya.

DATED, SIGNED and DELIVERED at NAIROBI this 26th DAY OF September 2014.
