RULING

1. When this matter came up for directions on 24/5/2022, the plaintiff told the court that the defendant/ applicant had served his submissions on 24/5/2022 (today) in court. The applicant asked the court to give a date for delivery of the rulings.
2. Advocate Halkano for the defendants/respondents asked for 2 days to file his submissions. He asked the court to give a date for delivery of the ruling.
3. Experience has taught this court that it is not advisable to give a date for a ruling unless all the submissions are in the court file. I will, therefore, decline to give a date for the ruling.
