

REPUBLIC OF KENYA

IN THE HIGH COURT OF KENYA AT MILIMANI

ADOPTION CAUSE NO. 114 OF 2012 (OS)

AND

IN THE MATTER OF THE CHILDREN'S ACT

(NO. 8 OF 2001)

AND

IN THE MATTER OF BABY B alias BABY J T (MINOR)

JUDGEMENT

The applicants, C M O and W N, are Kenyan citizens. They are a married couple. Their Originating Summons is dated 4th June 2012, in which they seek, among other orders, to adopt a male child, Baby J T (minor).

Baby J T(minor), the subject of these adoption proceedings is an abandoned child. He is estimated to have been born on (withheld). He was abandoned in the (withheld) area, (withheld) municipality on 14th August 2011, and a report was made at the Nyeri Police Station by good Samaritans who had found him. He was admitted to an institution, the N[.....], to which he was later to be committed by the Children's Court. He was placed with the applicants on 29th June 2011 and has been with them to date. The parents of the child have never been traced. Consequently, he was freed for adoption by the Little Angels Network adoption agency by their certificate of 14th December 2011.

To facilitate this adoption, the applicants have been assessed by the Director of Children Services and the guardian ad litem, V.K.K. These two have compiled and filed their reports in court dated 31st August 2012 and 3rd October 2012. All these reports are favourable and recommend the proposed adoption. The applicants have demonstrated that they have the financial and emotional capability and capacity to take care of the child. The child appears to have bonded well with them and he considers them to be his parents.

In the opinion of this court it would be in the best interests of the child that he is adopted by the applicants. The applicants will be able to provide a home and a family for the child to grow up in and thereafter be a useful member of the family. Consequently, the applicants shall assume all parental rights and duties of the biological parents in respect of the adopted child; they shall treat the adopted child as if he was born to them. The applicants have been made aware that once the adoption order is made it shall be final and binding during the lifetime of the child and that the child shall have the right to inherit their property. The applicant cannot give up the child owing to any subsequent unforeseen behaviour or other changes in the child.

I am satisfied that all the legal requirements for a local adoption have been met. I will allow the applicants' application to adopt the child. The applicants, C M O and W N, are hereby allowed to adopt the child, Baby J T (minor). He shall hereafter be known S J O M (minor). W N and M M are hereby appointed legal guardians of the child in the event something happens to the applicants. The Registrar-

General is directed to enter this adoption order in the adoption register. The guardian ad litem is hereby discharged.
