ADOPTION CAUSE NO.93 OF 2013 (OS)

AND

IN THE MATTER OF THE CHILDREN'S ACT (NO. 8 OF 2001)

AND

IN THE MATTER OF BABY R K

JUDGEMENT

1. The applicants, A M and J O M, are Kenyan citizens. They are a married couple. By their Originating Summons dated 11th October 2011 they seek to a female child called Baby R K.
2. The subject child, Baby R K, was found abandoned on 26th March 2012 at the Kabiro area of Kawangware in Nairobi. The matter was reported at the Muthangari Police Station on 28th March 2012. It is presumed that the child was born on 26th March 2012. He was admitted at the New Life Home's Trust on 28th March 2012, and was later to be formally committed there by the Children's Court. He was placed with the applicants on 23rd April 2013 for the bonding period.
3. This adoption is being arranged by the Little Angels Network adoption agency. The said adoption agency declared the child free for adoption through their certificate of 24th October 2012.
4. To facilitate this adoption, the applicants have been assessed by the Little Angels Network adoption agency, the guardian ad litem, E N N and the Director of Children Services. All three have compiled and filed their reports in court. The report by the Director of Children Services dated 23rd October 2013, while that by Little Angels Network is dated 15th August 2012. The report of the guardian ad litem is dated 11th July 2013.
5. All these reports are favourable and recommend the proposed adoption. The applicants have demonstrated that they have the financial and emotional capability and capacity to take care of the child. The child appears to have bonded well with them and he considers them to be his parents.
6. In the opinion of this court it would be in the best interests of the child that he is adopted by the applicants. The applicants will be able to provide a home and a family for the child to grow up in and thereafter be a useful member of the family. Consequently, the applicants shall assume all parental rights and duties of the biological parents in respect of the adopted child; they shall treat the adopted child as if he was born to them. The applicants have been made aware that once the adoption order is made it shall be final and binding during the lifetime of the child and that the child shall have the right to inherit their property. The applicant cannot give up the child owing to any subsequent unforeseen behaviour or other changes in the child.
7. I find that the application before me has merit and I hereby permit the applicants, A M and J O M, to adopt Baby R K be known hereafter as H G. I appoint S O N and I W the child's legal guardian should misfortune befall the applicants during the child's minority. I direct the Registrar-General to enter this adoption order in the adoption register. The guardian ad litem is hereby discharged.
