

REPUBLIC OF KENYA

IN THE HIGH COURT OF KENYA

AT NAIROBI

ADOPTION CAUSE NO.87 OF 2010

IN THE MATTER OF THE CHILDREN ACT, 2001

AND

IN THE MATTER OF BABY S.N – MINOR

G. G.M.....1ST APPLICANT

A. W.G. M2ND APPLICANT

J U D G M E N T

The applicants, G.G.M and A.W.G.M, are husband and wife. They were married 5th December 1992 under the Marriage Act. The applicants have not been blessed with any children due to a medical condition. They wish to adopt a child. Baby S.N (the child) was presumed to have been born on 19th December 2006. He was abandoned at Githurai 44 on 19th July 2007. The child was rescued and was taken to Kasarani police station. The police admitted the child at Happy Life Children's Home. On 21st September 2007, the Children's Court at Nairobi committed the child to the care and custody of the said Children's Home pending further court proceedings. Efforts by the concerned authorities, including the police, to trace the whereabouts of the biological parents of the child have been in vain. This court therefore dispenses with the consent of the biological parents of the child for the purpose of these adoption proceedings. The child was declared free for adoption on 27th March 2009 by KKPI adoption society. The child was left under the custody of the applicants on 22nd July 2009 for compulsory foster care pending these adoption proceedings.

The applicants were assessed by KKPI, the adoption society and by the Director of Children's Services. The two organizations recommends the application by the applicants to adopt the child. C.N.K , the guardian ad litem, also prepared a report which is favourable and recommends the adoption. This is a local adoption. As stated earlier in this judgment, the applicants are married couple who have expressed their wish to adopt a male child. The applicants are Kenyan citizens by birth. They established that they have the financial and emotional capability and capacity to take care of the child. In the period of about two (2) years that the child has been in the custody of the applicants, it was evident to the court that the child has bonded with them. The child considers the applicants to be his parents. All the relevant agencies have recommended the adoption. This court is of the view that the applicants have fulfilled all the legal requirements for a local adoption.

This court formed the opinion that it would be in the best interest of the child for the child to be adopted by the applicants. The applicants will provide a home and a family for the child to grow up and be a useful member of the society. The applicants will be required to execute an undertaking that they shall assume all the parental rights and duties of the biological parents in respect of the adopted child; they shall treat the adopted child as if he was born to them in their marriage; they have been made aware that once the adoption order is issued, it shall be final and binding during the lifetime of the child that they shall adopt; that the child shall have the right to inherit their property; that an adoption order cannot be recanted, and further, that they shall not give up the child owing to any subsequent unforeseen behaviour or other changes in the child.

The court will therefore allow the applicants' application to adopt the child. They have fulfilled the legal requirements for local adoptions by a married couple. The applicants, G.G.M and A.W.G.M, are hereby allowed to adopt baby S.N. Henceforth, the child shall be known as S.M.G. S.W.M shall be the legal guardian of the child should misfortune befall the applicants. The Registrar General is hereby directed to enter this adoption order in the Adoption Register. The guardian ad litem is hereby discharged. It is so ordered.
