Coram: Before J.N. Muniu – DR

Cc Mwangi

Mugo for applicant

Respondent in person

Mugo – The matter is from our Bill of Costs dated 4th June 2003. It is drawn to scale and it is totaling to Kshs.150,835/-. I pray that the same be assessed as drawn.

Respondent – The case was a Succession Case. I don't understand why I should pay the costs. I only require my parcel of land. I am the one who had brought up the case. I don't recognise the Bill of Costs.

Mugo – The respondent was served with the Bill. He has not pointed out any particular item. The court awarded costs on 11/2/2003. Coming up for a hearing of an application by the respondent. The application was dismissed with costs. That marked the matter as settled. The matter was before J.V.O. Juma (Justice). Ruling was delivered on 11/2/2003 where the respondent's application was dismissed with costs. The applicant is entitled to costs.
