RULING

1. Upon careful perusal of the records contained in this file, and mostly the proceedings, I realize that the jurisdiction of this court is yet to be invoked for the reason that taxation has not taken place. This file was transferred from the High Court while taxation proceedings were underway. The correct position is that this file ought to be before the Deputy Registrar. For this reason, this court is constrained not to comment further. Instead, I direct that this file be transferred to the Deputy Registrar for hearing and determination of any application(s) on a priority basis. Apologies for the inconvenience caused.

Orders accordingly.
