

REPUBLIC OF KENYA

KENYA LAW
THE NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR LAW REPORTING
Where Legal Information is Public Knowledge

Ndungu v Republic (Criminal Appeal E059 of 2022)
[2025] KEHC 2648 (KLR) (3 March 2025) (Ruling)

Neutral citation: [2025] KEHC 2648 (KLR)

REPUBLIC OF KENYA
IN THE HIGH COURT AT NAKURU
CRIMINAL APPEAL E059 OF 2022
SM MOHOCHI, J
MARCH 3, 2025

BETWEEN

SAMUEL KAMAU NDUNGU APPELLANT

AND

REPUBLIC RESPONDENT

RULING

Ex Tempore Ruling

1. The Applicant withdrew his appeal and urged the Court to review the sentence and have the two sentences running concurrently.
2. The Court has considered this application and finds no merit in the same. Reason being the two sentences are unrelated and relates to two separate offences against 2 separate victims all committed on separate days.
3. The application for review of sentence is thus dismissed.

It is so ordered.

SIGNED, DATED AND DELIVERED AT NAKURU ON THIS 3RD DAY OF MARCH, 2025.

MOHOCHI S. M.

JUDGE

