RULING

1. The applicant was charged and convicted on two counts of robbery with violence contrary to section 295 as read with section 296(2) of the Penal code. He was sentenced to serve 10 years imprisonment on each count. The sentences were to run concurrently.
2. He has filed an application for sentence revision, stating that she has been in custody since 2013, totalling 10 years during which he has undergone rehabilitation. He prayed for early release to aid his reintegration into society.
3. This court called for probation report which was favourable. The report indicates that the applicant is remorseful for the crime committed. As for his conduct in prison, the applicant has attended a number of trainings and counselling sessions, which have been instrumental in his rehabilitation process. The applicant’s family is also committed to helping him effectively rehabilitate and ensure successful reintegration into the community.
4. In view of the foregoing, it is my finding that the applicant is eligible for early release. I therefore find the time served as adequate sentence under the circumstances.
5. The applicant is released forthwith, and is directed to report to Kibera Probation Office for a period of twelve (12) months for purposes of reintegration back into society.

Orders accordingly.
