RULING

1. The applicant was charged and after a full trial convicted for the offence of Entering into a building and committing a felony contrary to section 306(a) of the Penal Code. He was sentenced to serve 4 years imprisonment.
2. He has filed the present application received on 24th July 2024 seeking revision of sentence. The grounds raised are that he was the bread winner to his family. He is remorseful for the offence committed. He is still useful to society and he was a youth leader before arrest. He urged the court to revise the sentence of the trial court to a non-custodial sentence.
3. I have considered the application, the grounds in support and the applicable law. From the record of the trial court, the court considered the applicant’s mitigation, the time spent in remand custody and the fact that the applicant was a first offender before sentencing. Having considered the application in its totality. The sentence imposed was also legal in the circumstances of the case.
4. In my view I find no good cause or reason to revise the sentence imposed by the trial court.
5. The application dismissed for lacking in merit.

Orders accordingly.
