SIMON NJOROGE MWANGI.....PLAINTIFF

JUDGMENT

1. The Plaintiff claims a proprietary right over all that parcel of land known as MAKUYU/MAKUYU/BLOCK II/1287 measuring approximately 0.028 Ha "herein referred to as the suit land". He avers that he is the registered owner of the suit land having purchased the same and was issued with a title deed on 17/3/16.
2. The Plaintiff has sued the Plaintiff and prays for judgment against the Plaintiff for the following reliefs;
  - a. An order of eviction do issue against the Plaintiff, his family members, employees, agents and whomsoever claiming under him to vacate from the suit land
  - b. Costs of the suit.
3. Brief facts of the Plaintiff's claim against the Plaintiff is that sometime in June 2017 the Plaintiff illegally entered the suit land and constructed structures thereon without his knowledge and consent. That the Plaintiff has continued to remain in occupation of the suit land and has been cultivating the land illegally. That the Plaintiff has failed to vacate from the suit land despite demand to do so by the Plaintiff.
4. The Plaintiff prays for eviction of the Plaintiff from the suit land, demolition of all his structures thereon and a permanent injunction restraining the Plaintiff from trespassing onto the suit land henceforth.
5. The Plaintiff's Counsel filed a Notice of Appointment dated 21/11/17 on same date. No further documents were filed by the Plaintiff in defence to the suit. Interlocutory Judgment was entered against the Plaintiff on 26/1/18 and the matter proceeded for formal proof.
6. The Plaintiff testified that he is the registered owner of the suit land. That he purchased the same from the Gathaithe Farmers' Cooperative Society and was issued with a title deed on 17/3/16. That sometimes in June 2017 she went to inspect the suit land and found that someone was tilling and had constructed some semi-permanent structures on the suit land. He later learnt that it was the Plaintiff. That the Plaintiff is still in occupation of the suit land. That the Plaintiff ignored her demand letter issued to him through the Plaintiff's advocates dated 16/6/17. That when he purchased the suit land from the Sacco Society the land was vacant. That the land is not fenced. He produced a copy of title deed in his name.
7. The Plaintiff's claim is based on proprietorship of the suit land and entitlement to the rights in respect to ownership of land. He has produced documentary evidence in form of a title deed over the suit land in her name as proof of ownership.
8. Section 24 of the Land Registration Act No 3 of 2012 states that the registration of a person as the proprietor of land shall vest in that person the absolute ownership of that land together with all rights and privileges belonging or appurtenant thereto. Section 25 of the said Act provides that the rights of a proprietor, whether acquired on first registration or subsequently for valuable consideration or by an order of Court, shall not be liable to be defeated except as provided in this Act, and shall be held by the proprietor, together with all privileges and appurtenances belonging thereto, free from all other interests and claims whatsoever, but subject—to encumbrances charges or leases shown on the register and the overriding interests as stated in Section 28 of the Act.
9. Section 26 of the Land Registration Act, 2012 provides;

(1) The certificate of title issued by the Registrar upon registration, or to a purchaser of land upon a transfer or transmission by the proprietor shall be taken by all Courts as prima facie evidence that the person named as proprietor of the land is the absolute and indefeasible owner, subject to the encumbrances, easements, restrictions and conditions contained or endorsed in the certificate, and the title of that proprietor shall not be subject to challenge, except—

- (a) On the ground of fraud or misrepresentation to which the person is proved to be a party; or
- (b) where the certificate of title has been acquired illegally, unprocedurally or through a corrupt scheme.

10. The Courts are therefore mandated by statute to consider a title document as prima facie evidence of ownership to land and a conclusive evidence of proprietorship to land that can only be challenged on grounds stipulated as above. In the present case the title produced by the Plaintiff shows that the suit land is registered in her name. That position was not challenged by the Plaintiff in fact the Plaintiff failed to file any pleadings in opposition to the claim either in person or through his counsel on record.

11. Among the rights to be enjoyed by a registered owner of any land is the right for peaceful and quiet enjoyment of the land he owns, in other words the rightful owner to the land has a right to possession, occupation and use of the suit land. The Plaintiff conducted evidence that shows that the Plaintiff has illegally taken possession of the suit land and is utilizing it for his own benefit, those actions of the Plaintiff amount to violation of the Plaintiffs right as guaranteed in the constitution and must be stopped. It is the Plaintiffs case that the Plaintiff's occupation of her land is without her consent or legal basis. The Plaintiff though represented by Counsel on record failed to rebut the claim.

12. The dispute herein involves ownership of a parcel of land, and the specific prayers sought by the Plaintiff in the Plaint filed herein is for eviction orders to issue against the Plaintiff herein. These are clearly orders relating to the use, occupation and title to land and within the jurisdiction of this Court.

13. Having found that the Plaintiff has proven her claim on a balance of probability and established that the Plaintiff has no legal right to remain on the suit land based on the evidence placed before this Court, the Plaintiff's claim succeeds and the Court makes the following orders;

- a). The Plaintiff by himself, family members, employees, agents and whomsoever claiming under him to vacate the land MAKUYU/MAKUYU/BLOCK II/1287 within the next 60 days and in default eviction to issue in accordance to the provisions of the law.
- b). The OCS commanding police station in the area is hereby ordered to supervise the eviction and maintain law and order.
- c). The eviction to be undertaken by an authorized Court bailiff.

14. I make no orders as to costs.

15. It is so ordered.
