

REPUBLIC OF KENYA

IN THE HIGH COURT OF KENYA AT NANYUKI

MISC.CRIMINAL APPLICATION NO.18 & 21 OF 2019

PETER DENNIS RAMALI.....APPLICANT

VERSUS

REPUBLIC.....RESPONDENT

ORDER

07/07/2020

Before Justice H.P.G Waweru

In chambers

I have seen the new application herein by the Applicant for a review of the bail terms imposed in the ruling of this court dated 17th and delivered on 30th January 2020.

The new application is misconceived. The personal circumstances of the Applicant (like his earnings, means, etc) are not the only thing that the court considers. The court will normally consider the seriousness of the charge, the prescribed penalty thereof and the need to ensure that the Applicant attends court for his trial as necessary. This court imposed the conditions for bail now complained of after consideration of all relevant matters. There is absolutely no need to reconsider the conditions. They are just in the circumstances of this case. This new application is misconceived and is hereby struck out.

GIVEN under my hand and seal of this Honourable Court this 7th day of July 2020

H.P.G. WAWERU

JUDGE

ISSUED at NANYUKI this 7th day of July 2020.
