

REPUBLIC OF KENYA

IN THE HIGH COURT AT NAIROBI

CRIMINAL DIVISION

CRIMINAL REVISION NO. 694 OF 2018

KENNETH KASYOKI MUTHEA.....APPELLANT

VERSUS

REPUBLIC.....RESPONDENT

RULING

1. The Appellant was granted a bond of Kshs. 300,000/= with a surety of a similar amount. As condition that would ensure he attends court, the bond terms must be commensurate with the offence. A surety bond would be sufficient in the circumstances given that the offence is serious.
2. Accordingly, I decline to substitute the surety bond with cash bail. Instead, I reduce the bond to one of Kshs. 100,000/= with one surety of a similar amount to be assessed by the trial court.
3. The trial court file to be remitted to trial court for hearing on 16/5/2019 as scheduled. Production order to issue.

DATED and DELIVERED THIS 7TH DAY OF MAY, 2019.

G.W. NGENYE-MACHARIA

JUDGE

1. Appellant present in person
2. M/s Akunja for the Respondent.
