

REPUBLIC OF KENYA

IN THE HIGH COURT OF KENYA AT NAIROBI

ADOPTION CAUSE NO. 76 OF 2014

IN THE MATTER OF THE CHILDREN ACT, 2001

AND

IN THE MATTER OF BABY B alias B I - MINOR

M H1ST APPLICANT

J H.....2ND APPLICANT

JUDGMENT

The applicants, M H and J H are German citizens. They were married on 15th day of April 2004. The 1st applicant is a Marketing & Communications Officer while the 2nd applicant is a nursery school teacher. The applicants have so far not been blessed with any children due to medical reasons. They wish to adopt a child. The applicants approached the relevant authorities in Germany with a view to securing the requisite approvals to enable them adopt a child, specifically a foreign child. The applicants were investigated by the HELP a child e.V. Children Find Parents, a foreign adoption society duly approved by the Federal Central Authority for Intercountry adoptions under the Federal office of Justice in Germany. They were further assessed by the Children and Youth Office, City of Heidelberg under the Regional Authority, Karlsruhe State of Baden-Wuerttemberg, Germany. The said authority approved the applicants' application to adopt a child from Kenya on 19th June 2012. The National Adoption Committee of Kenya duly approved the application by the applicants to adopt a child in Kenya. The approval certificate to that effect was issued on 18th September 2013.

Baby B alias B I, the child, the subject of these adoption proceedings was found abandoned on 11th day of September 2011 in Karuri. A report was made on the same day to Karuri Police Station. The child was taken to Kiambu District Hospital for care and treatment. The Kiambu Children's Office was informed of the incident and managed to secured home placement for the child at Angel Centre for Abandoned Children where the child was taken for care and protection. The Kiambu Children's Court committed the custody and care of the child to the said Children's Centre on 10th day of February 2012 pending these adoption proceedings. The child was placed under the custody of the applicants on 6th December 2013 for compulsory foster care pending these adoption proceedings. Since then, the child has been under the care of the applicants. According to the police, their effort to trace the biological parents of the child has been in vain. No one has come forward to claim the child. A report to that effect has been filed in court. This court therefore dispenses with the consent of the biological parents to the proposed adoption by the applicants. KKPI, an Adoption Society issued a certificate declaring the child free for adoption. The certificate is dated 31st October 2012.

The court read the reports prepared by KKPI, the local adoption society, the HELP a Child e.V. Children Find Parents, Children and Youth Office, City of Heidelberg, Germany, the Director of Children's Services and by M N G, the guardian ad litem. All the above reports are favourable and recommend the applicants' application to adopt the child. This is an international adoption. There are certain conditions that the applicants must fulfill before this court can allow them to adopt the child. The first condition is that the applicants must be approved by the relevant adoption authorities in their country of origin. In the present case, the applicants have been assessed and approved by the relevant authorities in their country of origin, Germany. This court had the benefit of reading the report prepared by the foreign adoption society. This court is satisfied that the applicants have been approved by the relevant authorities in the Germany to adopt a foreign child, and specifically a Kenyan child. The second condition is that the applicants must be approved by the National Adoption Committee in Kenya to adopt a child in Kenya. The applicants have been assessed by the said National Adoption Committee. A certificate has been issued by the said committee approving the applicants' application to adopt a child in Kenya. The third condition is that the applicants must satisfy the court that they have fulfilled the legal requirements pertaining the adoption, including having custody of the child for a sufficient period to enable bonding to take place. This period must not be less than three (3) months. It was clear to the court that the applicants have fulfilled all the legal requirements in respect to international adoptions. The applicants have had the custody of the child since 6th December 2013. In the period that the child has been in their custody, the child has bonded with them. This was evident from the reports prepared by the Director of Children's Services, the guardian ad litem and the local adoption society. The applicants have established that they have the financial and emotional capability to take care of the child.

Having evaluated all the reports on record, and the applicants' application seeking to be granted permission to adopt the child, it was clear to this court that it would be in the best interest of the child for the Applicants' application for adoption to be allowed. The applicants have given an undertaking that they shall allow access to the approved adoption society in their country of origin to undertake post-adoption supervision for a period of three years from the time of the issuance of this adoption order. The applicants have executed an undertaking that if this court grants the adoption order, they will permanently assume all the parental rights and duties of the biological parents in respect of the adopted child; they shall treat the adopted child as if he was born to them in their marriage; they have been made aware that once the adoption order is issued, it shall be final and binding during the lifetime of the child that they shall adopt; that the child shall have the right to inherit their property; that an adoption order cannot be recanted, and further, that they shall not give up the child owing to any subsequent unforeseen behaviours or other changes in the child; that the adoption society in Germany (foreign adoption society) shall provide annual follow up reports on the progress of the child to the adoption society in Kenya (local adoption society) for a period of three (3) years from the date of the arrival of the child in Germany; that the applicants undertake to allow the representatives of the foreign adoption society in Germany free access to the child at any reasonable time. The applicants further give an undertaking that they shall accord their citizenship to the child.

In the premises therefore, this court finds that the applicants have met the criteria set for international adoptions. The applicants, M H and J H are hereby authorized to adopt baby B alias B I. The child shall henceforth be known as I S H. Her date of birth shall be 10th September 2011. Her place of birth shall be Kiambu Central District, Kenya. She is presumed to be a Kenyan. P J B and S J B, sister and brother in law respectively of the 1st applicant are hereby appointed to be the legal guardians of the child should misfortune befall the applicants. The Registrar General is hereby directed to enter this order in the Adoption Register. The guardian ad litem is hereby discharged. It is so ordered.

DATED AT NAIROBI THIS 6TH DAY OF JUNE, 2014
