This is a Consent Judgment concerning Environment and Land Case No.65 of 2014. In their plaint, the plaintiffs prayed for judgment against the defendants jointly and severally for:-

- (a) A permanent injunction, restraining the defendants, their family members, representative, employees, servants agents and/or anybody else acting or claiming for, through or on their behalf or acting at their behest, direction and instruction, from whatsoever interfering with plaintiffs' possession, occupation, user and enjoyment of room numbers 1, A, C, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 8A, 8B, 9, 13, 14 and 15, all built and situate on plot No. 7918/53, within Isiolo town.
- (b) Costs of the suit and interest thereon at Court's rates.

On 30.9.2014, the parties informed the Court that they had filed a Consent which they wanted the Court to adopt as its order. The Consent was signed by the Advocates representing the parties. It was in the following terms:

“By consent of the parties through their respective counsel, this matter be and is hereby marked as fully settled with each party herein bearing his or her own costs.”

The consent is dated 18.8.2014.

The Consent is hereby adopted as an order of this Court. As a consequence, this suit is marked as fully settled. The parties may not bring it back to Court.

It is so ordered.
