RULING

1. The application for garnishment in the view of the court is premature and lacking in details of the money held by the Garnishees.
2. The applicant taxed his costs, he obtained a certificate of costs, but is yet to obtain a decree that can be executed through garnishment or other proceedings.
3. The application is therefore struck off.
4. The applicant may renew his application once he has obtained an executable decree.
5. No order on the costs
