RULING

1. This is a motion seeking orders amongst them, for stay of execution of a judgement which was rendered by the lower Court. The parties compromised the judgement and entered into a consent on settlement. This consent has not been varied. The Court cannot interfere with agreement entered freely by parties and so I choose to stick with the consent. There is nothing exceptional for me to deviate from what they agreed on.

2. The application is dismissed with costs.
