

LNK (Suing as the grandmother and next of friend of minor CK) v JNK & another (Family Appeal E015 of 2025) [2026] KEHC 6055 (KLR) (4 May 2026) (Ruling)

Neutral citation: [2026] KEHC 6055 (KLR)

REPUBLIC OF KENYA
IN THE HIGH COURT AT NAKURU
FAMILY APPEAL E015 OF 2025

JM NANG'EA, J

MAY 4, 2026

BETWEEN

LNK (SUING AS THE GRANDMOTHER AND NEXT OF FRIEND OF MINOR CK) APPELLANT

AND

JNK 1ST RESPONDENT

MN 2ND RESPONDENT

RULING

1. By Notice of Motion 11/2/2026 the Appellant prays for these reliefs;
 1. Spent.
 2. That the firm of P. K. Ndichu & Associates Advocates be granted leave to come on record in place of(sic).
 3. Spent.
 4. That the 1st Respondent a Notice to Show Cause be issued against the 1st Respondent and that she be cited for contempt of court for being in contravention with the orders herein issued on the 9th June 2025 by removing the minor from Shiners Premier (sic).
 5. That a Permanent Injunction be issued restraining the 1st Respondent from interfering with the minor's KENNEDY KIBUNJA study at SHINERS PREMIER by removing him from the school.
 6. That the OCS Central Police Station be ordered to supervise compliance with these orders.
2. The Application is supported by affidavit evidence of the Appellant.

3. Despite evidence of service of the Application upon the Respondent, no reply has been put in. The Application is therefore deemed as unopposed.
4. Having perused the Application, the new advocates for the Appellant are allowed to come in as per prayer 2). Notice to Show Cause is further issued to the 1st Respondent as sought in prayer 4). Any further necessary directions or orders shall be given upon hearing of the Notice to Show Cause.

J.M. NANG'EA - JUDGE.

RULING DELIVERED VIRTUALLY THIS 4TH DAY OF MAY, 2026.

In the presence of:

Appellant's Advocate, Mr. Ndichu

1st Respondent, Absent

2nd Respondent, Absent

Court Assistant (Jeniffer)

J.M. NANG'EA - JUDGE.

