RULING OF THE COURT

The proceedings in the superior court appear to have been conducted in such a manner as to lead us to believe that there ought to be stay of the execution of the decree of the superior court until such time the intended appeal is heard and determined. The moneys already deposited in court by the applicant are hereby ordered to be refunded to the applicant's advocates. Costs of this application shall be costs in the intended appeal.

Dated and delivered at Nairobi this 23rd day of May, 2000.
