RULING

Reasons For Ruling Delivered On 25th July 2017.

1. Judgment was given in this matter in favour of the 1st respondent on 9th March 2013. The objector is the 2nd respondent, who is the wife of the deceased advocate Mr. G. K. Mathenge, the sole proprietor of the 1st respondent.
2. It is not in dispute that the claimant has attached household items, which are personal properties of the objector who was merely an Administrator of the deceased.
3. It has not been demonstrated that those items form part of the estate of the 1st respondent against whom judgment was entered. The objection was upheld and the attachment set aside on 25th July 2017. Costs to follow the outcome.
